

MUSCOGEE (CREEK) NATION SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION PROGRAM

Kevin "Babe" Aaron Scholarship

Scholarship Description

Kevin Don "Babe" Aaron was born on April 10, 1986. He was called to God's side on April 17, 2014 to serve our real Father as the outstanding student, athlete, and quiet leader he was here on earth. In the short time the world had this special person he excelled in everything he did. He held a 3.8 GPA while playing football as an undersized all district center and was a state champion and a state record holder in power lifting. Babe was also the first state record holder at Dickinson High School in power lifting. Although he was not of The Muscogee (Creek) Nation, he was very proud of his Native American heritage and would be so proud that this scholarship will go to another Native American student.

Amount of Scholarship Award

$500.00

Purpose and Application of Funds

The purpose of this scholarship is to financially assist Muscogee (Creek) Nation students that might not have the financial means to further their education.
