

MUSCOGEE (CREEK) NATION SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION PROGRAM

Phillip Coon Scholarship

Scholarship Description

Raised in Okemah, OK, Phillip Coon is of the Alligator Clan and Nuyaka Tribal Town. Coon attended Haskell Institute with his late wife, Helen. He currently lives in Sapulpa, OK which located in northeastern Oklahoma. As a young man, Coon joined the US Army during World War II where he served as an infantry machine gunner. In the Philippines, Coon survived a prisoner of war labor camp and the brutal Bataan Death March. During the 65-mile journey, the Japanese military forced tens of thousands of American and Filipino soldiers to march with little food or water in blazing heat. As many as 11,000 soldiers died along the Bataan Death March, Coon credits his faith in God and the faith of others with helping him to survive. Coon indicated, "We ran out of food, ammunition, and men, but we didn't run out of prayer." In 2013, Coon received the Prisoner of War Medal, the Bronze Star, and the Combat Infantryman Badge from retired Major General Rita Aragon, Oklahoma's Secretary of Military and Veterans' Affairs.
