ECKE 'MVNOKECKV (A Mother's Love) Scholarship

Scholarship Description

A mother's nurturing love and support we receive during our childhood is critical in shaping who we become as adults. Recognizing this importance, the Ecke `Mvnokeckv: for Single Mothers is a source of empowerment for women who have a vision of pursuing a post-secondary education. The scholarship helps ease the financial burden of single motherhood, enables single mothers to continue their education, and supports the required attention single mothers need to provide for their children. The effort further benefits Muscogee families, communities, and culture. The Scholarship was conceived in recognition of the marriage between Cherrah Ridge, the first woman to serve as Second Speaker of the National Council, and Justin Giles, the first Assistant Director of the Muscogee Nation Museum and Cultural Center.
